

BOMEX 2017 – Education Series

Panelist

Ari Dimitraklas, National Director, Technical Services, Retail Services at Bentall Kennedy (Canada) Limited Partnership

Ari has been with Bentall Kennedy for eleven years and has 29 years of property management experience. His current role is the National Director, Technical Services, Retail Services with responsibilities including capital support of major building components. Ari provides support nationally for sustainability initiatives including BOMA Best, energy consumption management / control / analysis on a national level for the Bentall Kennedy retail group and evaluating opportunities to reduce energy. In addition, Ari is responsible for construction coordination and contract management.

Ari holds a Refrigeration Licence and is an active member of BOMA and ASHRAE.