

BOMEX 2017 – Education Series

Panelist

François Viau, Partner at Gowling

François Viau is a partner in Gowling WLG's Montréal office, practising in commercial litigation, bankruptcy and insolvency, real estate law and banking litigation. François also practises in the areas of corporate risk and business integrity. François is the Leader of the Montreal Restructuring, bankruptcy & Insolvency practice group and the National Leader of Gowling WLG's Insolvency sub-group in Commercial Litigation. He is also a member of the Liaison Committee for the Commercial Division of the Quebec Superior Court.

François regularly represents financial institutions and private lenders with respect to the enforcement of security, as well as trustees in bankruptcy, creditors and debtors on various insolvency-related issues. He also participates in files involving corporate investigations and audits. In addition, François is often called on to represent real estate owners in all types of litigation matters.

He practises law in English and French.

RECOGNITION

- The Best Lawyers in Canada 2018
- Benchmark Canada: The Definitive Guide to Canada's Leading Litigation Firms & Attorneys 2017
- Benchmark Canada: The Definitive Guide to Canada's Leading Litigation Firms & Attorneys 2016