

BOMEX 2017 – Education Series

Panelist

Jennifer Drake, Vice President and Legal Consultant at Aon Canada in the Financial Services Group

Her department provides risk transfer solutions to many of Canada's most prominent corporate executives and boards. In her capacity as legal consultant, Jennifer has authored white papers and advisory publications, presented to corporate management teams, spoken at multiple conferences and seminars and assisted in the development of policy wording to address emerging executive-risk issues. Jennifer also works closely with Aon's Cyber and Privacy Practice Group to develop insurance solutions for organizations' cyber and privacy breach risk exposure. She has been at the forefront of this issue since joining Aon and regularly lectures and publishes on this topic.

Prior to working at Aon, Jennifer was an associate at Goodmans LLP. Jennifer received her law degree from the University of Western Ontario and was called to the Ontario Bar in 2009.
