

BOMEX 2017 – Education Series

Panelist

Murray Gamble, President of The C3 Group of Companies

Mr. Gamble, President of The C3 Group of Companies, an innovative engineering, contracting and applied technology organization based in Waterloo Region. A graduate of the University of Waterloo, Mr. Gamble has 30 years of experience in the development and application of innovative technologies in the environmental remediation, materials science, and building rehabilitation fields. Mr. Gamble and his partner, Cameron Wood, have founded a number of technology companies, and maintain active networks with several Canadian research institutions. Mr. Gamble sits on the board of several technical, business and cultural organizations and is an advisor to many of the leading technology startups in Waterloo Region.