

BOMEX 2017 – Education Series

Keynote Speaker

Robert Desnoyers, Co-Founder, President and Chief Executive Officer, Safety Power Inc.

Robert Desnoyers is co-founder, President and Chief Executive Officer of Safety Power Inc. Robert is a Mechanical Engineering Technologist and began his career more than 35-years ago as a Marine Engineer in the Royal Canadian Navy and subsequently spent the balance of his career in the Facility Management & Energy Management industry including as Director of Facilities & Real Estate for the City of Hamilton, President of Hamilton Community Energy and today as President of Safety Power.

Safety Power Inc. was incorporated in Ontario, Canada in 2005 and is a privately held company with a focus on providing world-class clean technology for large scale diesel and natural gas internal combustion (IC) engines. Safety Power's head office is located minutes from Toronto Pearson International Airport in Mississauga, Ontario with manufacturing in Kitchener, Ontario and a branch office in Seattle, WA USA.